CENTRAL HARDIN/ST. MARY CATPURE GOLF TEAM TITLES

Central Hardin and St. Mary picked up team titles at the 2005 Leachman Buick & GMC/KHSAA State Golf Championships held last week.

Central Hardin (629) captured its first girls' team title, finishing 11 strokes better than runner-up West Jessamine (640). Karisa Akin helped the Bruins to the team title. Akin turned in rounds of 72 and 73 to tie Candice Wiley of Shelby County (70-75) for top individual honors. Wiley went on to win medalist honors after a one hole playoff.

St. Mary picked up its first boys' team title behind the play of individual medalist Case Cochran. The Vikings (633) finished six shots ahead of Henry Clay (639). Cochran turned in a one-under par 71 for Friday's final round to finish at one-over for the tournament (145).

IN THE GOLFING FAMILY

Last year's girls' golf tournament saw the daughter of a former state individual champion win the title. Myra Van Hoose Balckwelder of Lafayette (1970, 71, 72, 73), the only four-time state champion saw her daughter Mallory Blackwelder of Woodford County take home last year's championship.

This year its was the boys' side that saw a father-son duo of champions when Case Cochran of St. Mary, son of Russ Cochran of St. Mary (1975), took home the boys' individual title.
